DEAR FRIENDS,

In 2016 ABCD celebrated many highlights throughout the year and yet, for all of us, the greatest sense of accomplishment comes each time we hear mentees share how important their mentors have been to their healing process. The connection is strong between the mentor and mentee because of the careful process followed to ensure the match is about the whole person, not just the diagnosis. A personalized one-to-one match.

The words of a mentee say it best, “You don’t even know what you need or what to do next. My mentor totally understood. A sister, friend and guide. Where could I have found all that?”

We are proud to share a few of the highlights from the past year:

- The Zablocki VA Medical Center announced its partnership with ABCD to further our efforts to support veterans. A special thanks to James Sanger, MD, Philip Redlich, MD, Sherry Wiesner, RN-BC, BS and Cathy Ehlen BSN, RN and Cancer Care Coordinator
- ABCD became an official member of the national Metastatic Breast Cancer Alliance – we are honored to be a part of this initiative to improve the lives of those living with metastatic breast cancer
- ABCD’s Liaison Project, which engages specially trained breast cancer survivors and volunteers to interface with healthcare professionals throughout Wisconsin, assuring all breast cancer patients have easy access to ABCD Mentors

As we launch 2017, ABCD continues its mission under the exceptional leadership of Board President Wayne C. Oldenburg and a committed board and staff.

We invite you to join us in review of our progress and ask you to continue your involvement and support. Your generosity makes it possible for us to ensure our free, personalized support service is available to all those affected by breast cancer – patients, family and friends - from the newly diagnosed to those in treatment and on into survivorship.

Please know your personal commitment to ABCD helps to make a difference in hundreds of lives every year.

Sincerely,

Audrey J. Warner

ABCD LAUNCHES THE POWER OF ONE-TO-ONE INITIATIVE

ABCD: After Breast Cancer Diagnosis understands that breast cancer is so much more than scans, biopsies, surgeries and treatment. Getting through it requires support that is reliable and consistent from people who know what it's like to hear, "you have breast cancer."

Today, supportive services, including peer support, are recognized by the medical community as an essential part of the breast cancer journey from diagnosis throughout life. The National Cancer Institute along with accrediting organizations and professional oncology associations, now recommend cancer care providers emphasize both quantity and quality of life issues.

ABCD's new Liaison Project is a key component of The Power of One-to-One Initiative. The project consists of advanced volunteer training for breast cancer survivors who, in collaboration with ABCD staff, become survivorship liaisons to healthcare organizations throughout Wisconsin.

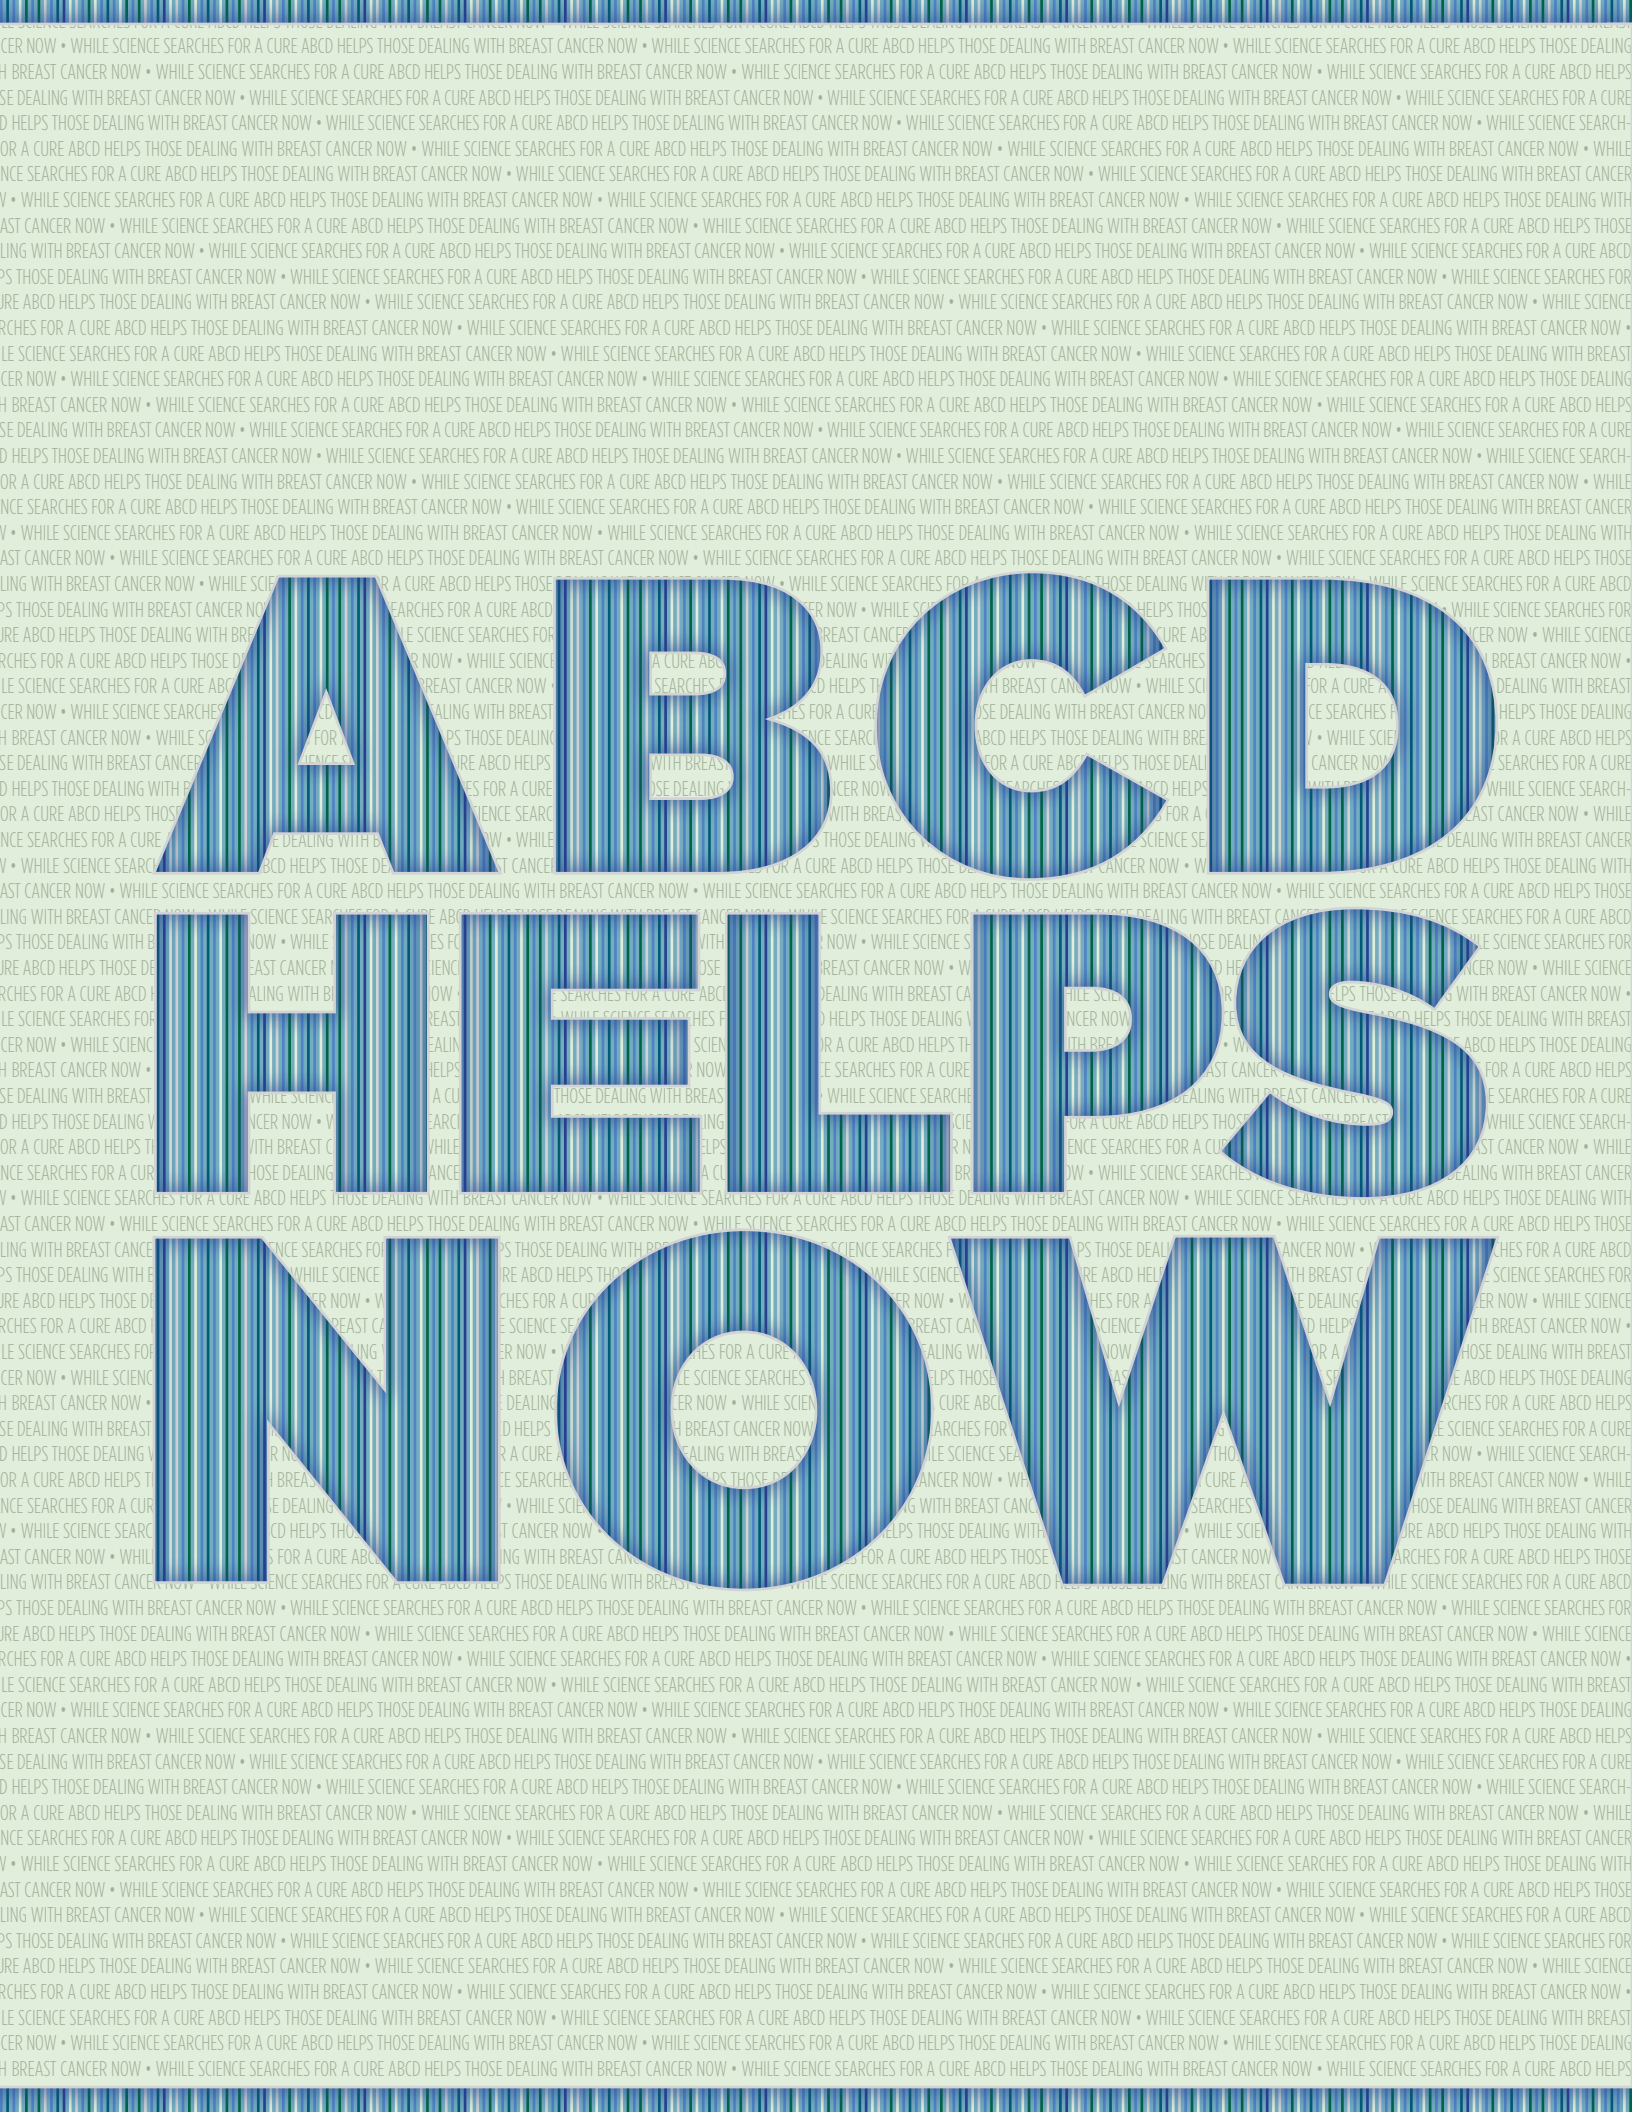

Liaisons regularly meet with cancer care professionals and community health leaders to assure easy access for patients and loved ones to ABCD's Helpline, resource assistance and our signature One-to-One peer support services. Liaisons are currently active in Southeast Wisconsin.

Thanks to a grant from the Wisconsin Comprehensive Cancer Control Program, in 2017 the project will expand throughout the state as well as allow ABCD to assess the effectiveness of the model in each community, customizing the approach on a region-by-region basis.

ABCD HELPS NOW

WHILE SCIENCE SEARCHES FOR A FUTURE CURE, ABCD HELPS THOSE AFFECTED BY BREAST CANCER NOW

ABCD understands that breast cancer is about more than medical care. It is a personal journey best understood by those with similar diagnoses and similar life circumstances — those who have been in “your shoes®”.

Trained volunteers (Mentors) are at the heart of ABCD’s mission to offer free, personalized information and one-to-one support to people affected by breast cancer — patients, families and friends.

Opportunities are available for survivors and co-survivors to volunteer from home as ABCD Match Mentors and Helpline Mentors.

Mentors complete ABCD’s comprehensive 12-hour New Mentor Training Program. (Helpline Mentor training includes additional special one-to-one Helpline technical and shadowing training.)

ABCD New Mentor training is free and open to all breast cancer survivors and co-survivors who are one year past diagnosis.

Match Mentor training sessions are offered online and at various locations and times during the year and include:

- Art of Mentoring
- Confidentiality & Ethics of Mentoring
- Dealing with Emotions
- Listening & Communications
- Overview of Breast Cancer
- Survivorship and Self Care

Helpline Mentor training sessions are also offered online and at various locations and times during the year and include:

- Basics of Mentoring
- Confidentiality & Ethics of Mentoring
- Dealing with Emotions
- Listening and Communications
- Overview of Breast Cancer
- Survivorship and Self Care

AND ABCD KNOWS IT.

ABCD FUNDAMENTAL BELIEFS

People affected by breast cancer – patients, family and friends – benefit from personalized, reliable informational and emotional support as a complement to appropriate medical care.

One-to-one support provided by people who have first-hand experience with similar breast cancer diagnosis, treatment history and similar life circumstances is a fundamental element of personalized support.

One-to-one support, which we call mentoring, is essential to building a life after diagnosis, leading to a more confident, empowered survivor.

The best mentors are well trained and professionally supported.

It is important to respect the individual choices of those who turn to us for support.

Confidentiality is critical to building trust.

Being responsive to the survivorship needs of mentors is a vital part of our work.

ABCD will take a leadership role in promoting the value of one-to-one support and establishing it as a standard element of care for all breast cancer patients.

ABCD is a credible resource for up-to-date information about breast cancer and a reliable conduit to other personalized support services.

Regardless of ethnic background, gender, religion or sexual orientation, everyone diagnosed with breast cancer, and their family and friends, has a right to ABCD's help without cost.

THE FACTS

As of June 2016, there were more than 2.8 million women in the USA with a history of breast cancer.

In 2017, an estimated 318,590 women will be diagnosed with a new breast cancer in the USA.

Over a lifetime 1 in 8 women will be diagnosed with breast cancer.

85% of breast cancer diagnoses occur in women who have no family history.

4,000+ of those diagnoses will be in the State of Wisconsin.

The majority of breast cancer diagnoses occur between the ages of 35 - 65.

ABCD is dedicated to assuring all those affected by breast cancer have access to free, personalized survivorship support from the moment of diagnosis, during treatment and every day forward. Through our signature service of one-to-one mentoring, mentor matches are personalized based on similar diagnoses, treatment plans and life circumstances.
